

Prevent bank fraud transactions with network APIs

CAMARA Device Status API provides the roaming status for a given mobile phone number (MSISDN). This capability would allow to detect easily suspicious transactions in real time.

Transaction detected
Device Status API would confirm that the customer is not in roaming

Customer actual location

Vodafone is collaborating in Camara Project. This initiative aims to build network APIs that can be easily consumed across all network operators.

Standardized Network APIs can enhance bank fraud prevention systems

